

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK January 27 – February 3, 2008

CATHOLIC EDUCATION LIGHTS THE WAY!

Friday, January 25 – Fish Fry and Book Fair

Sunday, January 27 – Art Show in the Borremeo Room before and after all Masses this weekend. Book Fair also open today.

Monday, January 28 – Community – Classes will assemble “Birthday Bags” for the St. Charles Food Pantry. Individual classroom teachers will contact parents with the details.

Tuesday, January 29 – Students – School Spirit Day – wear school colors (Black and gold) and/or logo. Students will participate in DROP EVERYTHING AND READ with another grade. Students should bring books to school today to read. Older students will read with younger students. Parents are also invited to come and eat lunch with their children (K- 4th grade eat at 11:55; 5th – 8th grade begin eating at 12:15).

Wednesday, January 30 – Nation – Students may wear red, white, and blue today. We will pray for peace throughout our world today by praying the rosary. Parents are also welcome to join their children for lunch today (same lunch schedule as Tuesday).

Thursday, January 31 – Vocations – We hope to have Sister Barbara visit all classrooms today. Students will also make Valentines for retired religious.

Friday, February 1 -- Faculty, Staff and Volunteers – Please join us for Mass today. The second grade is hosting the Mass. Students will write thank you notes to their parents thanking them for sending them to a Catholic school. Students will enjoy a Happy Ending party. Classes will pair up to watch a movie and enjoy some popcorn and juice. Student will conclude the week with Eucharistic Adoration (2:45 – 3:00).
